Business travel made simple and rewarding.

AIR CANADA
Corporate Rewards

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Imagine an online tool that makes booking and tracking business travel effortless. Add exciting rewards to the mix and you'll understand why so many companies like yours have joined the Air Canada Corporate Rewards Program.

Designed to help make the most of business travel, the Program offers companies an exclusive online tool that helps manage business travel expenses and track rewards simultaneously. The more your company spends within the Program, the more rewards it will reap, and the more rewards it can share among its employees. And remember that everyone continues to earn Aeroplan® Miles when they fly.

HOW ARE REWARDS EARNED?

Rewards and expense thresholds go hand in hand. Once your company is enrolled, your employees will earn discounts on Air Canada flights and services, as well as on select Lufthansa Group itineraries* at each expense threshold your company reaches.

Enrollment year:

The more your company spends during its enrollment year, the quicker it moves up to the next threshold and the more benefits it enjoys immediately upon reaching each threshold.

Subsequent years:

Following its first year in the program, the total amount your company has spent on travel at the end of each enrollment anniversary year will define the discount levels and rewards that it will receive over the subsequent 12 months. Rewards are deposited in your company's Corporate Rewards account on the anniversary of your company's enrollment.

* The Lufthansa Group includes: Lufthansa, Austrian Airlines, Brussels Airlines and SWISS. Discounts apply to transatlantic flights between Canada and India, Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Learn more
