- (I) RESTRICTED ARTICLES
The items listed in the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations will be accepted subject to advance arrangements and compliance with these regulations.
- (J) SCUBA DIVING-See SPORTING EQUIPMENT below.
- (K) SKIING-See SPORTING EQUIPMENT below.
- (L) SPORTING EQUIPMENT
Applicable to transportation:
NOTE: Non-paying attendant traveling pursuant to Rule 33 is not entitled to complimentary pieces of checked sports equipment.
All sporting equipment mentioned below should be registered with the airline at time of registration or at least 48 hours before departure. Unless otherwise specified, each item of sporting equipment described below is checked separately and is included in the checked baggage allowance as set out in Rule 220. Unless otherwise specified, each piece is subject to weight and size restrictions as set out in Rule 190 (B). When in excess additional fees may apply, see Rule 225. All sporting equipment items listed below must be enclosed in a suitable container for travel and will be accepted by the carrier subject to the conditions of acceptance and/or prescribed charges. If items are inadequately packed or packed otherwise than in the manner prescribed by carrier, they will be accepted upon the execution of a baggage limited release tag as found in E (3), releasing carrier from liability for damage or loss.
- (1) Bicycles
Bicycles will be accepted subject to the conditions and charges specified below. (For the purpose of this provision one item of bicycling equipment is defined as one bicycle.)
- (a) Bicycle Characteristics
Carrier will accept nonmotorized touring or racing bicycles with single seats. Carrier will also accept bicycles with tandem seats.
- (b) Conditions of Acceptance
Bicycles must have the handlebars fixed sideways and the pedals removed, and placed in a rigid and/or hard shell container specifically designed for shipping.
- (c) Charges

Oversize restrictions are waived for hockey, ringette, broomball, lacrosse, curling sticks/brooms and hockey, ringette, broomball, lacrosse, curling equipment). Overweight restrictions and other excess baggage fees still apply.

(12) Skeleton Sled

Skeleton Sleds will be accepted as check baggage. Skeleton Sleds must be packed in a rigid and or hard shell container specially designed for shipping.

(M) STROLLERS - See Rule 205

RULE 200AC CONDITIONS AND CHARGES FOR ACCEPTANCE OF LIVE ANIMALS

The transportation of live animals is subject to the general conditions of acceptance in paragraph (A), the provisions for containers in paragraph (B), the provisions for carriage in the passenger compartment in paragraph (C) and the charges for transporting the animals in paragraph (D) of this rule.

(A) GENERAL CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE

Carriers will accept domestic cats and dogs for transportation. The acceptance of animals is subject to the conditions below:

- (1) Advance arrangements must be made.
- (2) The animal must be harmless, inoffensive and odorless.
- (3) The animal must be confined in a cage or container subject to inspection and approval by the carrier prior to acceptance. The maximum allowable weight for both the animal and the container must not exceed 32 kg/70 lbs for transportation in the cargo compartment, or will have to be shipped cargo.

AIR CANADA
SECTION V - BAGGAGE

RULE 200AC CONDITIONS AND CHARGES FOR ACCEPTANCE OF LIVE ANIMALS

- (4) The passenger must make all arrangements and assume full responsibility for complying with any applicable laws, customs and/or other governmental regulations, requirements, or restrictions of the country, state or territory to which the animal is being transported.
- (5) Animals will be transported either in the passenger or cargo compartment.
- (6) Air Canada will not be responsible in the event any such animal is refused entry into or passage through any country.
- (7) Air Canada will not be responsible in the event of loss, delay, injury, sickness or death of such animal.

C [C]There is an annual embargo for transportation of live animals in the hold during certain periods, and additional embargos on certain breeds or, during certain periods, to certain destinations. Visit Air Canada's website for details.

(B) CONTAINERS

Containers must be leak proof.

(C) ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CARRIAGE IN PASSENGER COMPARTMENT

For Air Canada and Jazz Aviation LP operated flights only, AC will carry small domestic cats and dogs in the Business executive or economy passenger cabin of the aircraft subject to the conditions above, the additional conditions specified below, and the charges prescribed in paragraph (D) below.

- (1) Animal must be registered within 24 hours of reservation by calling Air Canada reservations.
- (2) The animal must be harmless, inoffensive, odorless and require no attention during transit.
- (3) Maximum Number of Animals in Container
Carriage of animals is limited to one animal per container and one container per passenger. Carriage is limited to four containers per flight operated by Air Canada, with a maximum of two containers in the Business class, and two containers per flight operated by Jazz Aviation LP.

EXCEPTION: No animal may be accepted for transportation in the Business class of an aircraft with lie-flat beds.

(4) Container and Animal Storage

The container must be stored under the seat directly in front of the passenger. The animal must remain enclosed in the container while on board the aircraft, from time of entry into the aircraft until after deplaning. No part of the animal may protrude from the container. The passenger will not be permitted in a bulkhead row or in a row immediately behind a bulkhead or adjacent to an emergency exit.

(5) Maximum Container Size and Weight-Hard Sided and Soft Sided

The container must not exceed 55 cm (21 1/2 in.) in length, 40 cm (15 1/2 in.) width and 23 cm (9 in.) height. The soft sided container must not exceed 55 cm (21 1/2 in.) in length, 40 cm (15 1/2 in.) width and 27 cm (10.5 in.) height. The total maximum weight for the container and the animal should not exceed 10 kg/22 lbs. The container is approved for an animal not exceeding 7 inches to the top of its shoulder. The container must be big enough to allow the animal to stand, turn around and lie down comfortably. If the pet carrier does not allow the animal to do this, Air Canada must refuse transport. Any animal too large for this container when closed and exceeding the allowable weight must be carried in the cargo compartment.

- (6) Air Canada may request passenger to change seats after boarding to accommodate allergy sufferers.
- (7) Carrier reserves the right to refuse carriage of animals because the total number of animals in cabin is limited on each flight by aircraft type and cabin configuration. Or at any time because a person with a severe allergy to the animal is travelling on the same aircraft.

(D) CHARGES

(1) Charge for Carriage of Animals in Cargo Compartment

The animal and its container will not be included in determining the free baggage allowance and will always be subject to a charge of CAD 105.00/USD 105.00.

- (2) Charge for carriage of animals in passenger compartment. Charge for carriage of animal and its container are considered part of the carry-on baggage allowance and will be subject to a charge of CAD $50/USD $50 each way.

(3) Storage Charge

If the animal is not called for within 6 hours after arrival at destination, a storage charge of $2.00 per day, or fraction thereof, will be assessed.

(E) SERVICE ANIMALS

- (1) Air Canada will accept for transportation without charge in passenger compartment specifically-trained, certified, accompanied service animals in the following categories:
 - (a) Search and rescue dogs
 - (b) A service animal required to assist a person with a disability provided the animal is properly harnessed and certified as having been trained at a professional service animal institution, such an animal will be permitted to accompany the person with a disability into the cabin and to remain on the aircraft floor at the person's seat.
- (2) For the safety and comfort of all passengers, Air Canada staff (in consultation with the person with a disability) will determine where the person with a disability and service animal accepted under this rule will be seated.
- (3) Service animals do not require a muzzle.

AIR CANADA
SECTION V - BAGGAGERULE 200AC CONDITIONS AND CHARGES FOR ACCEPTANCE OF LIVE ANIMALS (Continued)(E) SERVICE ANIMALS (Continued)

- (4) Air Canada will not be responsible in the event any such animal is refused entry into or passage through any country. Except as may otherwise be provided for in this tariff, Air Canada will not be responsible in the event of injury, sickness or death of such animal. Animal result from negligence of Air Canada representatives, Air Canada's liability will be limited to expeditiously providing, at its own expense, for the medical care and if necessary replacement of the animal.
- (5) The passenger must make all arrangements and assume full responsibility for complying with any applicable laws, customs, and/or other governmental regulations, requirements or restrictions of the country, state, or territory to which the animal is being transported.

RULE 204AC INTERLINE BAGGAGE ACCEPTANCEDEFINITIONSInterline Agreement

An agreement between two or more carriers to co-ordinate the transportation of passengers and their baggage from the flight of one air carrier to the flight of another air carrier (through to the next point of stopover).

Interlining Carrier(s)

Includes both the selecting carrier and down line carriers who have been identified as providing interline transportation to the passenger by virtue of the passenger's ticket.

Interline Itinerary

All flights reflected on a single ticket involving multiple air carrier ("Interlining Carriers").

Selected Carrier

The carrier whose baggage rules apply to the entire interline itinerary.

Selecting Carrier

The carrier whose designator code is identified on the first flight segment of the passenger's ticket at the beginning of an interline itinerary issued on a single ticket whose origin or ultimate destination is in Canada.

Summary Page at the end of an online purchase

A page on a carrier's Web site which summarizes the details of a ticket purchase transaction just after the passenger has agreed to purchase the ticket from the carrier

(A) BAGGAGE RULE DETERMINATION BY SELECTING CARRIERChecked Baggage

The selecting Carrier will decide which baggage rule to apply to the entire itinerary. When Air Canada is Selecting Carrier, its own baggage rules as set out in Rule 60 shall apply to the entire interline itinerary. When Air Canada is not Selecting Carrier, the Selecting Carrier shall:

Carry-On Baggage

Each operating carrier's carry-on baggage allowances will apply to each flight segment in an interline itinerary. However, carry-on baggage applicable to the entire interline itinerary, if any, will be those of the selected carrier.

(B) BAGGAGE RULE APPLICATION BY INTERLINING CARRIER

Where Air Canada is not the Selected Carrier on an interline itinerary but is an interlining Carrier that is providing transportation to the passenger based on the ticket issued, Air Canada will accept and apply as its own the baggage rules of the selected Carrier throughout the interline itinerary.

(C) DISCLOSURE OF BAGGAGE RULES

For baggage rules provisions related to a passenger's 1st and 2nd checked bag and the passenger's carry-on baggage (i.e., the passenger's "standard" baggage allowance), when Air Canada sells and issues a ticket for an interline itinerary, it will disclose to the passenger on any summary page at the end of an online purchase and on the passenger's itinerary/receipt and e-ticket at the time of ticketing the baggage information relevant to the passenger itinerary. The disclosed information will reflect the baggage rules of the Selected Carrier.

AIR CANADA
SECTION V - BAGGAGE

RULE 205AC CHECKED AND CARRY-ON BAGGAGE

Passengers may check baggage for carriage in the cargo compartment of the aircraft and/or may carry baggage on board the aircraft subject to the provisions in paragraphs(s) (A) and (B) below. The suitability of baggage, as to weight, size, and character, to be carried in the passenger compartment of the aircraft will be determined by the carrier.

(A) CHECKED BAGGAGE

Carrier will check baggage which is tendered by a passenger and which is acceptable under the terms of Rules 190, 195, and 200, upon presentation by a passenger of a valid ticket for transportation over the lines of that carrier, or over the lines of that carrier and one or more other carriers, subject to the conditions specified below.

- (1) Baggage must be checked at the city or airport office designated by the carrier and in advance of flight departure time as prescribed by the carrier.
- (2) The passenger's name must appear on the baggage. AC will supply baggage identification labels free of charge.
- (3) Baggage will not be checked:
 - (a) to a point that is not on the passenger's routing.
 - (b) beyond the passenger's next point of stopover or, if there is no stopover, beyond the final destination designated on the ticket.
 - (c) beyond a point at which the passenger wants to reclaim the baggage or any portion thereof.
 - (d) beyond the point to which all applicable charges have been paid.
 - (e) beyond a point at which the passenger is to transfer to a connecting flight, if that flight is scheduled to depart from an airport different from the one at which the passenger is scheduled to arrive.
 - (f) beyond a point of transfer to another carrier, if the passenger has declared the baggage worth more than $100.00 CAD (or $250.00 CAD when interline transportation is entirely over the lines of AC).

(B) DELIVERY OF CHECKED BAGGAGE BY CARRIER

- (1) Checked baggage will be delivered to the bearer of the baggage check upon payment of all unpaid sums due carrier under contract of carriage and upon return to carrier of the baggage (claim) tag(s) issued in connection with such baggage. Carrier is under no obligation to ascertain that the bearer of the baggage check and baggage (claim) tag is entitled to delivery of the baggage, and carrier is not liable for any loss, damage or expense arising out of or in connection with such delivery of the baggage. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (3) below, delivery will be made at the destination shown in the baggage check.
- (2) If the provisions of subparagraph (1) above, are not complied with by a person claiming the baggage, carrier will deliver the baggage only on condition that such person establishes to carrier's satisfaction his rights thereto, and if required by carrier, such person shall furnish adequate security to indemnify carrier for any loss, damage or expense which may be incurred by carrier as a result of such delivery.
- (3) At the request of the bearer of the baggage check and baggage (claim) tag(s), checked baggage will be delivered at the place of departure or an intermediate stopping place upon the same condition provided for in subparagraph (1) above, unless precluded by government regulations, or unless time and circumstances do not permit. In delivering baggage at the place of departure or at any intermediate stopping place, carrier shall be under no obligation to refund any charges paid.
- (4) Acceptance of baggage by the bearer of the baggage check and baggage (claim) tag(s) without written complaint at the time of delivery is presumptive evidence that the baggage and contents have been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the contract of carriage.
- (5) Passengers who arrive at the airport of departure for check-in within 10 minutes of scheduled departure or who are travelling on a standby basis and are accepted for carriage will be advised that it may not be possible to load their checked baggage on the flight on which he/she has been accepted for carriage. Such baggage will be accepted only upon execution of release, supplied by the carrier, which relieves the carrier from liability of any delivery charges resulting from failure of baggage to arrive on the flight on which the passenger travelled unless the carrier has failed to exercise ordinary standard of care in the carriage and delivery of the baggage.
- (6) Checked baggage will be carried in the same aircraft as the passenger unless such carriage is deemed impractical by carrier, in which event carrier will carry the baggage on a space available basis, and the checked baggage may arrive after the passenger's arrival at destination.

AIR CANADA
SECTION V - BAGGAGERULE 205AC CHECKED AND CARRY-ON BAGGAGE (Continued)(C) CARRY-ON BAGGAGE

When baggage is carried on board the aircraft it may be stored in carry-on compartments of aircraft so equipped or it must be retained in the passenger's custody and stored under a seat or in an overhead compartment approved for the carriage of such baggage. Carry-on baggage is subject to the following additional conditions.

- (1) (a) Business Class Fares (Applicable to AC only)
The free baggage allowance for each passenger paying the Adult J/C Class fares as otherwise provided, will be:
One standard bag maximum size 23cm X 40cm X 55cm (9in X 15.5in X 21.5in).
One business or personal article with a maximum size 16cm X 33cm X 43cm (6in X 13in X 17in) such as a purse (small), laptop, camera, walking stick, coat, backpack or reading material.
NOTE: Skycheck baggage limitations are the same as for carry-on.
- (b) Economy Class Fares
One standard bag maximum size 23cm X 40cm X 55cm (9in X 15.5in X 21.5in).
One Business personal article with a maximum size 16cm X 33cm X 43cm (6in X 13in X 17in) such as a purse (small), laptop, camera, walking stick, coat, backpack or reading material.
NOTE 1: Carry-on size includes wheels and baggage handles
NOTE 2: In the case of upgraded customers, whether paid or free, the allowances of the booked class prevail. No one piece of carry-on should exceed 22 lbs (10 kgs).
- (2) Electronic Devices As Carry On Baggage:
The following articles may be carried on board provided they meet the carry on baggage rules with respect to the number of pieces, dimensions, weight and storage and provided they are not operated on board during flight: Portable telephone systems (transmitter/receiver); portable television sets; transmitters (walkie talkies); electronic games; portable AM/FM radios. Should any of these devices be operated or should any other device in the possession of a passenger cause interference to aircraft navigational systems, the pilot in command or someone appointed by him may require the device to be turned off or may cause the device to be removed from the possession of the passenger for the duration of the flight.
- (3) Passengers are allowed up to 2 pieces of cabin baggage provided that when combined, cannot exceed the size limit stated below.
- (4) Skycheck Baggage
Skycheck baggage is a baggage service offered on AC's or JazzAir LP Embraer 190/175, CRJ100/200/705, DASH-8/100, DASH-8/300 and Beech Aircraft, consisting of a special cart (positioned next to aircraft stairs) whereupon customer's simply drop their carry-on baggage prior to boarding the aircraft. Upon arrival, the Skycheck baggage is immediately removed from the aircraft and returned to customers as they disembark. Skycheck baggage is subject to all the same limitations and regulations as any carry-on baggage.

RULE 215AC CABIN-SEAT BAGGAGE AND CHARGES

When a passenger requests that an item of baggage be carried in the cabin, and it is determined by the carrier that the item is acceptable as cabin baggage but it is so fragile and/or bulky as to require the use of a seat, the provisions specified below will apply. A passenger may carry on board the aircraft baggage of a bulky or fragile nature to be loaded on a seat or seats next to passenger, upon payment of 50% off the applicable fare and subject to seat availability. Such baggage will be subject to the following conditions. Passengers should contact the carrier for more information:

- (a) Must be booked through Air Canada reservations at time of booking, or at least 72 hours prior to departure.
- (b) Applies for Air Canada, Air Canada Rouge and Air Canada Express (Operated by JAZZ, SKY Regional) operated flights only.
- (c) Passengers must be seated next to the seat-loaded cabin baggage.
- (d) Passengers must check-in at least 60 minutes prior to the recommended check-in time, to allow sufficient time for the tie-down process.
- (e) No upgrades permitted.
- (f) Not available in the Business suites.
- (g) Double bass are not accepted as seat-loaded cabin baggage.
- (h) Not available on Beech aircraft. Certain other aircraft restrictions apply.
- (i) Restrictions apply to baggage dimensions.
- (j) Maximum weight: 36.3 kg (80 lbs) per restraint net used.
- (k) For musical instruments, items must be properly packaged in a rigid and/or hard shell container specifically designed for shipping such items, in the event that item must be checked. String musical instruments must have their strings loosened to prevent damage caused by changes in temperature and/or pressure.
- (l) Air Canada's checked baggage allowance applies for each seat, but the carry-on baggage allowance applies per passenger.
- (m) The baggage must be secured by a tie down system provided by Air Canada to eliminate shifting of the baggage during normal flight and ground conditions, and packaged or covered in such a manner as to avoid possible discomfort or injury to another passenger.
- (n) The baggage's location may not restrict access to the aisle or any regular or emergency exit and may not block any passenger's view of no smoking, seat belt or exit signage.

AIR CANADA
SECTION V - BAGGAGE

RULE 230AC LIABILITY--BAGGAGE

- (A) (1) (Applicable for transportation solely within Canada only and not in conjunction with any international travel.) Liability for the loss of, damage to, or the delay in delivery of, baggage or other personal property shall not be more than 1500.00 dollars per passenger unless a higher value is declared in advance and charges are paid pursuant to carriers regulations as defined in paragraph (C). In such a case, the liability of the carrier shall be limited to such higher declared value. In no case shall the carriers liability exceed the actual loss suffered by the passenger. All claims are subject to proof of amount of loss. These limitations shall also apply to baggage or other personal property (as previously defined in Rule 195) accepted by the carrier for temporary storage at a city or airport office or elsewhere before or after the passengers trip.
- (2) International transportation shall be subject to the Rules relating to the liability established by the Convention whereby any liability of the carrier, is limited, with some exceptions, to 250 French Gold Francs, approximately $20.00 per Kilogram, in the case of checked baggage and 5,000 French Gold Francs, approximately $400.00 per passenger in the case of unchecked baggage or other property, unless a higher value is declared in advance and additional charges are paid pursuant of carrier's regulations. In that event, the liability of the carrier shall be limited to such higher declared value. In no case shall the carrier's liability exceed the actual loss suffered by the passenger. All claims are subject to proof of amount of loss.

NOTE: In Canada the French Gold Franc shall be converted into Canadian dollars in accordance with the provisions of the carriage by Air Act Gold Franc conversion Regulations, SOR/83-79.

AIR CANADA
SECTION V - BAGGAGE

(A) (Continued)

- (3) The carrier may disallow any claim for loss or damage which contains misrepresentations, including false statements concerning whether or not the passenger has made previous claims with AC or other carriers and/or where the passenger fails to have the carriers' baggage claim declaration form notarized. Carrier may also disallow claims when the passenger fails to provide proof of loss in the form of receipts of purchase.
- (4) For the purpose of international carriage governed by the Montreal Convention, the liability rules set out in the Montreal Convention are fully incorporated herein and shall supersede and prevail over any provisions of this tariff which may be inconsistent with those rules.

(B) EXCLUSIONS FROM LIABILITY

- C C Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay in the delivery of items the carrier has not agreed to carry pursuant to Rules 190 and 195 when such items are contained in checked baggage with or without the knowledge of the carrier. In addition, carrier shall not be liable for damage to fragile items, for damage or spoilage to perishable items resulting from delay, or for loss of unsuitably or inadequately packed items.
- (2) Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay in the delivery of passenger's carry-on items or cabin baggage unless caused solely by the carrier's negligent handling or as a consequence of damage to the aircraft.
- C C Normal carrier baggage liability will be waived for substantiated claims involving the loss, damage or delay in delivery of mobility aids such as wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, scooters and other mobility aids, when such items have been accepted into the care of the carrier as checked baggage or otherwise.
- C [IN]NOTE: The liability of carrier for substantiated claims involving the loss of, damage to, or delay in delivery of mobility aids, when such items have been accepted as checked baggage or otherwise, is to be based on the cost of the repair or replacement value of the mobility aid.
- C C In case of damaged or delayed mobility aids, such as wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, scooters and other mobility aids, if a damaged aid can be repaired, carrier will arrange, at its expense, for the prompt and adequate repair of the aid and for its return to the passenger as soon as possible. A temporary replacement will be obtained without undue delay while the passenger's mobility aid is being repaired or returned.
- (5) Carrier is not liable for damages or loss of baggage and contents resulting from overpacking for the style, size and quality of the luggage. Carrier does not accept liability for losses resulting from the use of cardboard boxes as checked baggage.

(C) DECLARATION OF HIGHER VALUE

- (1) (a) A passenger may, when checking in for a flight and presenting property for transportation, pay an additional charge for each carrier on which the property is to be transported and declare a value higher than the maximum amounts specified in (A). The additional charge is CAD $ 0.50 per each CAD $100.00 or fraction thereof of excess declared value. This additional charge must be paid in advance for each carrier and for each leg. In which event, carrier's liability shall not exceed such higher declared value.
- (2) Limits on Declared Higher Values
The declared value for personal property, including baggage, shall not exceed the limits of 2,500.00 CAD.
